Behind this grand Georgian façade is a spacious and versatile family home, perfect for multi-generational living. This substantial property features distinct living zones, providing privacy and comfort for two families under one roof. With ample bedrooms, bathrooms and a shared outdoor space, this unique home offers the ideal blend of togetherness and independence. Cleverly spread over 2 levels this instantly appealing home features 8 sizeable bedrooms including a master suite downstairs that is supported by ensuite and walk in robes. Upstairs you will discover 5 other bedrooms, one of which includes rear balcony and built in bar with hot and cold water perfect for teenagers or young adults. The well zoned floor plan also boasts an elegant lounge, massive upstairs rumpus and an outstanding gourmet style kitchen with island bench and plenty of cupboard space. Outdoors will reveal a superb paved pergola area ideal for all those family BBQ's as well as the ideal place to accommodate trailers, caravans and boats. A self contained living quarters with its very own entrance can be used to house extended family and is situated at the rear of the ground floor. Consisting of kitchenette, expansive lounge, an additional sleeping zone and bathroom, it provides seclusion and all the amenities required to provide comfort for self sufficiency. Other notable enhancements include alarm, video intercom, ceiling fans, quality window furnishings, drive through garage access and spa bath. A rare opportunity for flexible living arrangements in a desirable location. Situated close to transport (train station, and bus routes) , schools (Craigieburn Secondary, Craigieburn South Primary, Our Lady's Catholic School) and Hothlyn Drive shops, this is a great place for the whole family to call home.
