Boasting a tasteful renovation, preserving original features while infusing modernity. Step through the front porch into a luminous dining space, seamlessly connected to a lounge adorned with Southern Beech hardwood floors. The living area, featuring a slow-combustion fireplace and courtyard access, offers a serene entertainment space. The kitchen flaunts timber benchtops, a sleek splashback, and a seamless flow into the living room. The stylish master bedroom, with parquetry-look floors and a stunning bay window, complements two river-facing bedrooms. The renovated bathroom boasts a claw-foot bathtub and unique stained-glass windows. A rear courtyard leads to the versatile studio, ideal as a retreat or home office, featuring a bedroom with a fireplace, stained-glass windows, and a modern bathroom. Extras include bore for gardens, open patio, lane access, and a single carport with additional storage. Set in Tacoma's serene community, with convenient access to transport and amenities, this is an unmissable opportunity.
