Located in the forever growing Broadmeadows, this vacant block measures approximately 703m². Within close vicinity to local shopping centres, public transport facilities, schools, hospitals and much more this opportunity wrecks of substantial growth. With the area being well renowned for its extensive development and increasing population, the chance to develop town houses (STCA) and cater to future home buyers and/or tenants starts here. Current plans available for multi townhouses, please call our office today for further details.
