Soaring ceilings, preserved period features and vast amounts of natural light define this exquisite freestanding Victorian home positioned in a thriving lifestyle pocket. Steps from a choice of local parks and a choice of quality cafes and restaurants, the lifestyle appeal is matched by generous interior dimensions and a private courtyard, perfect for entertaining. An arched hallway and polished timber floors flow through to the open plan living and dining zone, where period proportions establish space and French doors open to the rear terrace and landscaped garden. The kitchen is well equipped with plenty of preparation space, storage and a central island, perfect for casual dining. Two spacious bedrooms feature built in robes, sash windows and traditional style fireplaces. Beautifully maintained throughout, additional features include a large bright bathroom with Euro laundry, split system air conditioning and feature leadlight windows, in a prime Windsor locale, in walking distance of Chapel Street, the train station, High Street and Dandenong Road tram connections, with a choice of shopping villages within easy reach.
