This innovative family home presents a split-level layout, offering spacious indoor and outdoor living zones embraced by lush leafy surrounds. Elevated and enjoying rainforest views, on a 670sqm block in the incredibly popular Shelly Beach location. This one-of-a-kind property has such an incredible feel... like you are home. With expansive living areas, set over two levels, the lower living space and combined dining, with solid hardwood floors, opens through glass sliding doors to an expansive East facing entertaining terrace that overlooks the saltwater pool. The kitchen is well appointed with gas cooking, dishwasher and granite benchtops. The second living area is air-conditioned with raked ceilings, exposed timber beams and plenty of character. This is the perfect space to relax and unwind after hours, with built-in bar and access to a third deck. There is a renovated laundry and internal access to the single garage. It should be noted that the property also offers level off street parking for up to five vehicles. Accommodation features a master suite that boasts a stylish ensuite bathroom, complete with access to the private Juliet balcony to spend your Sunday mornings. There are a further three bedrooms with incredible raked ceilings that are serviced by a stunning main bathroom with separate bath and his & hers sinks with stone top bench. If you are looking for the perfect family home, where everyone has space to enjoy and even host incredible functions in your beachside abode, minutes' walk to Shelly beach, local shops & eatery, and Hastings Primary School, then this is it!
