

70 Nicholson Street, Woolloomooloo, NSW 2011

House For Sale

Thursday, 14 March 2024

70 Nicholson Street, Woolloomooloo, NSW 2011

Bedrooms: 1

Bathrooms: 1

Type: House

Luis Guance
0293802255

Rafi Haque
0293802255

Contact Agent

Step into history with this meticulously renovated circa 1885 terrace, exuding timeless elegance fused with modern luxury. Originally boasting 2 bedrooms, this gem has been transformed into a sophisticated 1 bedroom haven with all the modern cons.

- Magnificent over 3m high ceilings downstairs create an airy ambiance, accentuating the sense of space and grandeur.
- Indulge in the comfort of heated flooring adorned with exquisite De Lorenzo Italian tiles.
- Pamper yourself in the completely remodeled bathroom, featuring a lavish Hansgrohe rain shower, elevating your daily routine to a spa-like experience.
- Embrace culinary delights in the modern kitchen, boasting a freestanding Belling induction cooktop and 3 ovens, sleek 5mm benchtop and ample storage, perfect for both casual dining and entertaining.
- Transform your bedroom into a sanctuary of serenity with remote-controlled blinds, designed for optimal comfort and relaxation. Perfect for light sleepers, these blinds effortlessly block out light, creating a cocoon of darkness for uninterrupted rest.

Nestled in the heart of Woollloomooloo, revel in the vibrant lifestyle this location offers. Stroll to the iconic Finger Wharf, where world-class dining experiences await amidst stylish bars, creating the perfect backdrop for unforgettable evenings. Discover the charm of Potts Point eateries, explore the lush greenery of the Botanic Garden, or immerse yourself in culture at the Museum of Art—all within easy walking distance. With an array of entertainment options at your doorstep, every day promises adventure and discovery.