Imagine escaping to this picturesque corner of Tasmania's North East Coast for your next holiday adventure. Nestled on an 800m<sup>2</sup> block of land in the serene Parnella Drive, this getaway promises the ultimate blend of relaxation and excitement. As you arrive, you're greeted by the inviting charm of a professionally converted caravan and solid annexe, flanked by a double garage. Step inside to discover a spacious lounge and dining area, where the crackling warmth of a wood heater beckons you to unwind after a day of exploration. The kitchenette and breakfast bar offer the perfect setting for leisurely mornings and casual meals. Venture further, and you'll find a fully equipped bathroom, seamlessly connecting to the converted caravan and annex. Here, the main bedroom awaits, offering accommodation for a restful night's sleep. Need extra space? Additional sitting and sleeping areas provide flexibility for the family. But the magic doesn't end indoors. Step outside to discover the pièce de résistance – an alfresco area designed for unforgettable gatherings under the Tasmanian sky. Secluded and sheltered, it's the ideal setting for sizzling barbecues, lively conversations, and starlit soirées. With its proximity to boat ramps, pristine beaches, and the vibrant cafes and restaurants of St Helens, every day is an opportunity for new adventures. Whether you're seeking serenity or excitement, this WIWO weekend package is a true gem waiting to be discovered.
