"A superb parkside lifestyle comes with this well-appointed full brick terrace", says local Camperdown specialist and long-term resident Charles Bailey. "The interior layout has been smartly refreshed to offer a bright and easy design and provide a rare low-maintenance living space where charm, convenience and privacy merge with great success." It also enjoys an attractive street presence and a peaceful location that's just a few steps to Camperdown Memorial Rest Park, and walking distance to a choice of vibrant cafes and wine bars, the train station and King Street's famous dining scene.-Practical single-level design with a bright open living and dining space-A private back courtyard with rear lane access and potential parking -User-friendly kitchen with gas fittings plus a good-sized bathroom -Two bedrooms and easycare polished timber floors throughout-Ready to live-in now or lease out and enjoy immediate rental income-Plenty of scope to upgrade, redesign or add a second level (STCA)-A wide and quiet street with plenty of resident parking available-Within easy walking access to RPA Hospital and Sydney University
