Positioned on level 7 of 'Holme' at 68 Cambridge Street, designed by renowned John Wardle Architects and winner in the category at the World Architecture Festival for 2021, is this stunning and oversized three-bedroom residence offering the very best in lifestyle living only steps from Collingwood's best offerings and an easy stroll to the Paris End CBD. This residence is a cut above the rest, with oak floors underfoot, a stunning city aspect with double glazing on all windows, an oversized living zone and a sleek chef's kitchen with stone tops, an island bench, top European appliances and Vintec wine fridge. The highlight of the residence is the master suite, with soft wool carpets underfoot, a light and airy feel with floor-to-ceiling windows, extensive built-in robes sufficient for all and a wonderfully luxurious ensuite with double rainfall showerheads and matching joinery. Additional features include reverse cycle air-conditioning, secure underground car parking for two cars side by side (no stacker) an oversized storage cage and a separate laundry. Rounding off the package are the complex's 9th-floor communal facilities, including a resident's lounge, kitchen with dining and an oversized terrace with BBQ to enjoy an alfresco evening with friends and family all whilst basking in a view over the entire cityscape.
