Unrivalled, world-class harbourside living.

Introducing The Harrington Collection, a one-of-a-kind showcase of Harbour view penthouses, majestic apartments and elegant terrace homes, anchored in Sydney's heritage The Rocks precinct and buoyed by the dual landmarks of the Opera House and Harbour Bridge. Designed by award-winning architects FJMT, The Harrington Collection is an expression of four distinctive Australian stories, each representing a harmonious collection of moments in history, and all housed within the one unique address. From sleek modern contemporary residences through to charming heritage style abodes, The Harrington Collection is perfect for those who demand excellence.

The Penthouses, The Apartments, and The Terraces collectively comprise 58 exquisite residences across three distinct buildings, each with its own style and aspect, and each drawing cues from the intricate craftsmanship, dramatic texture, and innate beauty of this heritage locale.

Life in The Rocks is epitomised by its connection to both the past and the present, and so the design of the residences reflects this.
