Fabulous inner-city unit in a prime location and only a short walk to the train station, buses, restaurants, cafes, schools and shops. This home is perfectly situated for people looking to enjoy the convenience and lifestyle that inner-city living offers. Inside this spacious unit the living and dining area flows to the balcony, made possible through two banks of sliding glass doors that offer views of Suncorp Stadium and the city. A well-appointed kitchen features stone bench tops and high-quality appliances, including a brand-new electric cooktop, fridge and oven. The unit boasts two well-sized bedrooms, both with city views and built-in wardrobes. The master bedroom has access to the veranda and comes with an ensuite. There is a hidden laundry with a brand-new dryer and also a washing machine. Plenty of restaurants and a short stroll to Stones Corner, enjoy dining at the top restaurants on the southside and take in a game of footy at The Gabba all within walking distance. Secure parking for 1 car with easy lift access and visitor / street parking available. This is really city living, convenience and style with low maintenance.
