Let your dream coastal lifestyle become your enviable reality at "Northshore". A brand-new luxury mid-rise building just 120m from patrolled beaches, this northeast-facing 7th floor apartment spoils you with an exquisite outlook from every room. A magnificent tapestry that contrasts the deep blue of the Pacific Ocean against the Burleigh Heads National Park bushland, it extends across to embrace Tallebudgera Creek. Neutral coastal interiors and premium finishes complement the 143m<sup>2</sup> floorplan, while peace and privacy are enhanced with only one common wall in the entry hallway. Full-height glass invites sunshine, sea breezes and sensational views into the open-plan kitchen, living, and dining zone. Featuring 40mm stone benchtops, superior Smeg appliances and a seamless connection to the alfresco balcony, entertaining is made easy here. Host guests against a never-to-be-built-out coastal backdrop stretching from Coolangatta to Stradbroke Island. Alternatively, relax and soak up the natural beauty of the meandering creek, bushland and parks. Three spacious bedrooms take advantage of the mesmerising views too, ensuring an ever-present connection to beaches, bushland and parklands. A large walk-in robe and modern ensuite add a touch of luxury to the master suite, with a modern bathroom, laundry, abundant storage and two car spaces rounding out the offering. Residents of North Shore also enjoy unparalleled amenities, from the 20m infinity-edge pool with its floating sunbeds to the European-style sauna, Zen garden, state-of-the-art gym, meeting rooms, private lounge and even a 11-seat cinema. Dual entrances to the building offer the ultimate convenience, whether arriving by car or on foot.
