Lap up the sweeping 7th floor views while being spoiled for lifestyle, is this contemporary 1 bedroom security apartment. In the impressive '1060 Carnegie' project complete with an on-site building manager and residents' rooftop entertaining garden, this quality built apartment features a sublime stone kitchen with induction cooktop; a generous bedroom suite (BIRs) with genuine study area, a stunning fully tiled bathroom, European laundry and a vogue living and dining area opening onto the full-length balcony capturing the expansive panorama. Designed with the creativity of Peddle Thorp Architects, evident by its oversized layout, soft curves in the balcony and interior finishes including Oak floors and striking stone features, this stylish retreat includes split system air conditioning, video intercom, roller blinds, floor-to-ceiling double glazed windows and lift access to secure basement parking. Positioned for lifestyle with the popular Panda Hot Pot restaurant on your doorstep, stroll to Koornang Road's wide range of cafes, grab all the essentials at Carnegie Central, jump on a bus towards Chadstone, take the train one stop into Monash University Caulfield or enjoy some quiet time at Carnegie Library.
