Treat yourself to the most spectacular views from all principal rooms of this two bedroom apartment in the brilliantly located 'The Herald' building. The home's seventh floor setting gifts uninterrupted vistas across Newcastle's glorious harbour, taking in Nobbys Headland and stretching north all the way to Mount Tomaree. Glass sliding doors frame the ever-changing panorama where you can watch the ferry scoot across to Stockton or the ships sailing into port from the comfort of your light-filled living room or large alfresco balcony. Both bedrooms are set on the other side gifting privacy away from the social spaces. Here take in the gothic form of Christ Church Cathedral, the leafiness of King Edward Park or the rolling surf at Newcastle Beach. Two fully tiled bathrooms, a single line Caesarstone kitchen, private study nook, and a secure parking space and storage cage ties the bow with a separate storeroom adjacent to the apartment adding further appeal. With convenience at your doorstep, you'll find the beach just a stone's throw away, a plethora of cafes, bars, and restaurants surrounding the area, and the picturesque harbour foreshore a mere five-minute stroll from home.
