Indulge in the luxurious essence of New York-style living right in the heart of Sydney with this remarkable 2-bedroom apartment. Situated within "The Riley," a distinguished warehouse conversion, it seamlessly merges the property's industrial legacy with contemporary sophistication, evoking the ambience of the "Upper West Side." Spanning 2 levels, this luminous abode features soaring ceilings, rich oak floorboards, and a sun-drenched lower-level living/dining area. The downstairs bedroom features built-in robes and offers potential for use as an office or study, while the master bedroom on the upper level boasts built-in robes, a lavish ensuite, and direct access to a sun-soaked private terrace, ideal for leisurely dining and entertaining. With air conditioning throughout, distinctive industrial touches, and an internal laundry, this residence presents a picturesque retreat in Sydney's Inner-East. Positioned perfectly to embrace the city's finest offerings, including the harbour foreshore, CBD, Potts Point, and Darlinghurst, this home is a true treasure.
