

71 Buckingham Road, Swan View, WA 6056

House For Sale

Saturday, 15 June 2024

RayWhite

71 Buckingham Road, Swan View, WA 6056

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 2

Type: House

James Douglas 0419911710

from $900,000

The moment you arrive at this circa 1925 homestead you just know your journey into yesteryear has begun; please take your time to enjoy something wonderful. The home itself boasts a building style that is rarely seen these days with such things as: * Wide wrap-around decked verandah, * High 11ft ceilings * Gleaming jarrah floorboards, * Ornate ceiling roses, * Open fire places, * Floor to ceiling double sash windows, * Beautiful tuck-pointed brickwork and high skirting boards., with that feeling of quality craftsmanship permeating every where you look. The main homestead consists of: * 3 double bedrooms (2 with open fires) * Gorgeous formal lounge room with French doors (and an open fire) * Modern kitchen with a big pantry & a Metters No 2 stove * Open plan family/meals area with air conditioner * Wide central hall * Decked outdoor living area (shaded) * Double Garage * 1646 SQM Block (appx) The whole property is fully fenced with the house sitting towards the back northwest corner. Large front and rear lawn areas, lovely gardens and a shade-covered outdoor entertaining area. Ample space for 4 plus cars If you're into walking or bike riding, you'll love the Heritage Trail across the road, extending for kilometres in each direction. Schools, shops, parks and public transport are all within easy walking distance. Don't hesitate and wait for the first home open as this one will create a lot of interest. Phone James Douglas from Ray White Midland & Hills now and buy your piece of history.