This solid brick home is for those with the foresight that will ultimately delight in watching their dream home take shape. Take a peek into the future of a three bedroom, large living, personalised kitchen and styled bathroom of your own design. This vacant property allows it's new owner to make the world their oyster. A single garage space with established plumbing accompanies this property, giving a multitude of potential options of "mixed use" for those that dare to create more to call it home. (no council approval sought)
