This comfortable three-bedroom weatherboard home is situated in a sought-after location and adjoins grazing land at the rear boundary. Internally it offers a private entry from the front patio. All three bedrooms are carpeted and have built-in wardrobes. The lounge room has good wall space for furniture and has a serious wood heater for winter comfort. The kitchen is gas and is open plan to the separate meals area, which has a separate gas point. It also enjoys the rural outlook to the east. Bathroom is complete with an easy access bathtub as well. This home will readily appeal to a young family as well as retirees. Interested? - please contact the exclusive agent Brian Orvad for your personal viewing.
