A dress-circle setting, magnificent gardens and a superb design provide a wonderful context for family life on a stunning north facing 948.5sqm. Timelessly elegant whilst working perfectly for modern life, the full brick home presents light-soaked interiors with a spacious living and dining plus additional TV room and private home office. Suited to gatherings big or small, bifolds retract to a substantial entertainer's terrace that is completely private and framed by the pool and captivating gardens and has access to the nearby external pool bathroom. Distinctly zoned with a split level design, the four bedrooms are positioned away from the living areas, all spacious with built-in robes and the master with an ensuite. 'Strachan' has been enjoyed by the one family for 27 years and is now ready for a new one to make it their own. Bus services are metres away and it rests within easy walking distance of Wahroonga Public School, local shops and parks.
