Situated in a great position and just an easy stroll to the Alstonville village shops, cafes & restaurants. This well presented home will appeal to families and retirees. Vacant and ready to move into- recently freshly painted, new blinds and carpet throughout makes for a fresh clean setting to make it your own! Set back from the road this single-story home with great separation of living is a delight to inspect. There is ample space to store the van off the street. This home features a spacious living room with high ceilings, dining area, large entertainer kitchen with excellent storage and servery to the outdoor area. There is a second living area, four bedrooms, the main with ensuite along with air conditioning and walk in robe. All the bedrooms have built in robes. You will love the great outdoor entertainment area which is undercover and very private, fabulous for entertaining with friends and family or enjoying a summer meal outside in the warmer months. The yard is fully fenced and surrounded with established gardens of pretty flowering shrubs, natives and tropical plants. There is a separate laundry with ample storage and internal access from a double garage, off road space to store a boat! Current owners have priced the property to meet current market demands and this will suit those wanting to move straight in, call exclusive agent on 0421 560 936. Property Code: 2244
