Ideal for those entering the real estate market or investors, this property has been treated to a host of recent refurbishments. This is especially evident in the kitchen, which is now stocked with modern appliances and eye-catching cabinetry. But the upgrades are obvious throughout the interior, with new floorings and fresh paint on every surface - including in the three bedrooms with built-in wardrobes - as well as brand new split system air conditioning. There's a lovely outdoor entertaining area that's undercover and overlooks the secure backyard. Located close to parks and other amenities, this house is perfect for first-home buyers seeking to get their foot in the real estate door, or investors with an eye for a bargain.
