A large block of land 2,028sqm (1/2 acre) has just come on the market in Wellington East. It has a bitumen road frontage and located close to the public boat ramp and the soon to be created Wellington East reserve. Which will have BBQ shelters, playground and nature walk and more. Wellington has the native Botanical gardens and is very close to the river, a fantastic location. Build your dream off grid home today, or simply take advantage of the increasing investment opportunities Wellington East is offering. Subject to planning consent. A quiet location, with a generous block size, near to the new race track, in Taillem Bend and near Adelaide, not far to travel if building a holiday home. This would make a great site for a holiday home, a forever house, or an investment, or even a land banking opportunity.
