Woongoolba is an idealic, rural coastal suburb in the Northern Gold Coast. Known for its recreational lifestyle and wide open views but still close to all that you need. The area has a local primary school, church and the shops are located in Jacobs Well which has a local pub and the public boat ramp. Talking of boats, Horizon Shores Marina and the delightful Cabbage Tree Point public boat ramp are close by so you can explore the nearby waterways that meander through to Stradbroke Island and Moreton Bay. There is a Conservation Wetland and a site has recently been purchased by the State Government for the development of the new home of Harness Racing QLD. If you go a little further a field there are many public and private schools, Shopping Centres and a new Train Station is under construction at Pimpama. Don't miss the opportunity for peaceful living.
