Situated central to all Colac has to offer, this much loved family home boasts three bedrooms and a bungalow. Set amongst a lovely established garden setting, the property also features reverse cycle air conditioning in the dining room and an updated bathroom. 72 Armstrong Street is ideal for those working in the central business district, families wanting to ride to school and let's not discount investors looking for a well equipped property to add to their portfolio! In the same family for over 45 years, it's now time to welcome the next generation.
