Beautifully presented, generously proportioned and offering great convenience, this stylish Paddington terrace is just a minute's walk to Centennial Park, fashionable Queen Street village, Oxford Street's boutiques and the Saturday markets. Flowing over three impeccable levels, the home has been fully renovated and offers the perfect blend of original Victorian character and timeless modern design. A north facing landscaped courtyard extends from the light-filled kitchen and casual living room, providing a haven for alfresco entertaining. There are two bedrooms with built-in robes, superb main bathroom with separate shower and bath, guest powder room, CaesarStone kitchen with Smeg appliances, elegant double formal rooms with twin marble fireplaces, soaring ceilings, polished timber floorboards and plenty of natural light.
