Situated within walking distance of the community clubhouse and Banyan Reserve, this light and bright unit is spacious with open plan living. This unit has been recently painted and includes new appliances, new carpet, built-in robes in bedrooms, internal access to the lock-up garage, reverse cycle heating/cooling and European laundry. If you have been looking for a unit with space and established garden surrounds, this is it. Enjoy your very own paradise with this low-maintenance and comfortable environment. The unit is fitted with a 24 hour call system for immediate medical attention if required and also a nursing home on site. Close proximity to the local shopping village and surrounded by golf courses, shopping centres and easy connections to Melbourne's CBD and the Mornington Peninsula this is seaside living at its best.
