This lovely rural living setting is a real delight and is very convenient to the thriving city of Murray Bridge as well as great for anyone looking to commute to Adelaide or Mt Barker with easy access to freeway and being just 45 minutes to Toll Gates. The pine log ranch style home has both terrific insulation factors and a wonderful aspect for gaining all the natural solar benefits with return verandas for summer shade and taking in the solar warmth and natural light through the cooler months into the living areas. The 4-bedroom, 2-bathroom home includes a wonderful long open plan family living room that features pine lined walls and rake ceiling with a very relaxing vibe between the kitchen, meals and lounge around the combustion wood heater and garden views. A lined shed makes for a handy granny flat, teenage retreat or would make a fabulous games room, craft room or home office. There is also another substantial shed for storage and a workshop. The verandas are wonderful outdoor living spaces that provide shelter all the way round the home and means you can always have a spot out of the weather whichever the direction. The property has mains power, water and rainwater with septic tank. Then you have the large open paddock area which will compliment a family lifestyle whatever your hobby.
