Nestled on a private & peacefully positioned 501m² block in the sought after 'Craigburn Estate', this immaculate home is a real surprise package. From a versatile four bedroom plus study design to the secluded low maintenance surrounds, you'll love just how much this two storey property has to offer. On entering the home you'll enjoy a generous, formal living room making the perfect home theatre space. The brand new & very stylish, open plan kitchen features a cleverly designed walk-in butlers pantry & overlooks a dining & cosy family living space whilst spilling directly onto all your outdoor living. With four bedrooms on offer, whether is room for kids, guests or work from home office there is room for everyone. The master suite on the upper level features a walk-in robe, new ensuite bathroom & adjoining study with loads of storage. Bedrooms two, three & four are all on the lower level with bedrooms two & three featuring built-in robes positioned both situated around a stylish main bathroom three-way bathroom with feature claw foot bath tub. Entertaining your guests will be a breeze under the large, all weather outdoor living space. This private living area is surrounded by established, low maintenance gardens & comes complete with shade blinds. The double garaging features automatic roller door & handy direct internal access. Added features to this much loved home include a modern fully fitted laundry, reverse cycle air conditioning, a whopping 6.6kw Solar System & so much more. So if you're an astute buyer looking to simply move in & put your feet up... Put this at the top of your list!
