In the goldrush of the 1890s, worker's cottages of limestone, brick and timber began to line the streets of Plympton, and this Sewell Street cottage is a classic example. Perfectly positioned and full of potential, this traditional semi-detached cottage presents a rare opportunity to break into this high sought after East Fremantle community. Surrounded by beautiful heritage homes on the street, this brick and iron home is ideally located near the river, parks, fine local schools and the boutique retail, restaurants and cafes of the desirable George Street shopping strip. In need of some genuine TLC, this heritage home offers a unique opportunity to capitalise on its outstanding potential, all in a wonderful neighbourhood where everybody loves living in this very special group of streets. Don't miss out on the opportunity to make 73 Sewell Street your new home. For more details, call Exclusive Selling Agent Clare Hickey-Shand on 0424 593 136. 2 Bed 1 Bath. Traditional semi-detached brick and iron cottage built circa late 1890's. Offered to market for the first time on over 60 years. Highly sought-after Plympton Ward address.
