A superb modern residence that meets, then exceeds, every expectation associated with such a prestigious address, this stunning home's indoor-outdoor balance makes the most of northern light that flows from its second frontage to Knight Street. Two luxurious living and dining areas and a kitchen featuring marble benches, dual ovens, integrated coffee machine and wine fridge lead to a covered deck where effective heating and sunny privacy enhance alfresco excellence. Four desirable bedrooms and three beautiful bathrooms, including one of each downstairs, deliver family accommodation today's way while a fitted study/office zone lets you work from home in style. Heating, cooling, surround sound and a secure garage - and lots of additional luxuries - with Williamstown High School and the beach easily reached!
