Are you looking to downsize and have a relaxing low maintenance lifestyle? If so, this beautifully presented and sun filled home in Bayview is the perfect place for you. This much loved home is sited at the end of Bayview's most popular cul-de-sac. With its glorious North aspect and stunning views of yacht-filled Pittwater, this property is the perfect place to relax and enjoy a healthy coastal lifestyle. The open plan family room and kitchen lead to a large entertaining sun deck, perfect for entertaining guests or sipping a morning coffee. The lower level comprises of a fully equipped guest quarters or separate large living space ideal for older children. The master suite is luxurious and spacious, with a walk-in robe, ensuite and direct water views. The kitchen has been recently renovated with ceasarstone benchtops, AEG induction stovetop, quality LeMans units and breakfast bar. The lower level bedrooms have external entrances and decks, and virtually every room in the house has a Pittwater view. The family bathroom includes underfloor heating, while the rest of the house features blue gum flooring, ducted air conditioning, ceiling fans and gas fireplace. The manicured easy-care gardens mean more time to enjoy all the nautical facilities and natural beauty of Bayview. Double carport, lock up workshop plus under house storage. After a garage? No problem the lower level rumpus is actually the original garage and can be easily converted back, also would allow for the carport to become an ideal turning area for easy access in and out. Offering so much value for money and the ideal position with a pathway nearby taking you directly to the waterfront boardwalk and facilities. It is also close to city transport, schools, parks and cafes.
