A timeless, architect-designed renovation and extension has transformed this traditional inner-urban cottage into a four bedroom family home with a refreshing alfresco entertainers' heart and a coveted front parking space. Enviably situated in a peaceful park side cul de sac that is just a short stroll from Chapel Street, the home is not only a rare discovery, but also offers a surreal sense of sanctuary. Simply stylish with an attractively presented oak-floored kitchen / dining / living wraps around to embrace the joy of a private deck courtesy of concertina doors and windows that really open up the space. A SMEG oven / cooktop and Bosch dishwasher highlight a commitment to quality in this home with two upstairs bedrooms adjacent to one bathroom and another two downstairs bedrooms adjacent to the other bathroom. Merely moments from a myriad of fine cafes, exciting bars and thriving restaurants all along Chapel Street, this first-class location also allows you to walk to plenty of tram routes and city-bound trains from Windsor Railway Station, as well as easy access to both Prahran Market and Prahran pool.
