Providing all the ingredients couples and young families require – including a lush green bush-like rear border, this refreshed three-bedder presents the delightful combination of a low-maintenance lifestyle and a location by the lake. Offering smooth flow between the living, dining and kitchen zones plus an elevated rear deck for outdoor dining, here is a home that caters to the indoor/outdoor lifestyle we all crave. Maximising internal comfort, bedrooms are grouped around a bathroom with a bath, and the main bedroom includes built-in wardrobe. Complemented by a modern kitchen, rooftop solar system, an attached single garage and additional parking bays, 74 Fassifern Street, Blackalls Park kicks goals with its quality inclusions and superb address, only metres from the Greenway Pathway for your daily lakeside walk or run.
