Discover the perfect blend of rustic charm and contemporary living in this stunning mountain home. With its hardwood weatherboard exterior, high cathedral ceilings and exposed internal hardwood posts and rafters, this home exudes all the character of a true mountain retreat while offering a sense of space as it seamlessly blends rustic charm with modern amenities and a split-level, open-plan layout. This elevated 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom home is situated on a large 1217 sqm block with a private, southern outlook overlooking mature gardens and established trees creating a peaceful and tranquil environment. The open-plan living area includes two separate family spaces, a modern kitchen with stainless steel benchtops and gas cooking, and large sliding doors that open onto the undercover deck, as well as a large covered paved patio and level backyard - ideal for year-round entertaining. Completing the perfect fusion of rustic charm and modern comfort, the newly renovated ensuite and spacious main bathroom offers a touch of modern elegance to this stunning traditional style mountain home.
