Spacious Rural Property in Edith River Region with Endless Potential Discover a remarkable opportunity to own a substantial piece of land in the picturesque Edith River region. This expansive mixed farming enterprise covers an impressive 3437 hectares (8492 acres) on a single freehold title. Previously utilized for both breeding and agistment, the property now awaits its next venture in the upcoming 2024 season. Situated amidst the undulating landscape of Edith River, Granite Creek is one of the largest available properties in the area, making it an attractive investment. Over the past five years, the region has witnessed the subdivision of rural living blocks, providing an excellent opportunity for a lifestyle change within a commutable distance to Katherine. Granite Creek's strategic location offers the convenience of proximity to Katherine while providing the scale required for a small grazing operation. The property is well-connected to live export markets via the Port of Darwin, ensuring a consistent supply of protein to meet the demands of Southeast Asian countries. Beyond its agricultural potential, Granite Creek boasts unique tourism prospects, with Edith Falls just a short 15-minute drive away. This natural wonder adds to the charm and appeal of the property.

Key Features:
