Displaying a fresh modern feel that perfectly complements its traditional appeal, this smartly renovated Victorian residence provides a spacious home with an emphasis on light, charm and quality. It features a versatile two-storey layout with many retained period details, contemporary finishes and a tranquil garden sanctuary that's perfect for escaping the chaos of the city. This great looking character home also offers perfect convenience and is within easy strolling distance to the train station, schools and Petersham Park, with the pub just around the corner. Presented in the classic tradition yet designed for a modern lifestyle. Elegant interiors feature generous formal lounge and dining areas. High decorative ceilings, ornate fireplaces and polished timber flooring. Landscaped entertainment courtyard, alfresco deck and garden beds. Three upstairs bedrooms include a main with lacework front balcony. Ultra-modern island kitchen with breakfast bar and new appliances. Stylish full bathroom, air-conditioning, ceiling fans and custom shelving. Walking distance to Norton Street cafe, dining and cinema precinct.
