Historically significant Victorian home with views

Recently renovated to a magnificent standard, this significant c1863 Victorian home offers a rare opportunity to own a slice of Australian history. Set on a 2,536sqm level parcel with district views, it's a stroll to shops, schools and Macarthur Park.

Built by the Macarthur family, but known locally as Dr Crookston's house

Spacious dining flows to courtyard, lounge opens to balcony and garden

Established gardens with irrigation, playground, tennis court or lawn area

Stunning galley style kitchen with marble benches and gas cooktop

Four oversized bedrooms, three bathrooms, extra w/c

Wraparound verandah, marble fireplaces, decorative ceilings

Ironbark timber floors, cedar staircase, air conditioning

Two street frontages, B2 zoned, ideal for couples or families

Triple carport, art studio plus storage in converted stables

Stroll to Argyle Street cafés, restaurants and Onslow Oval
