

75 Parkes Road, Collaroy Plateau, NSW 2097

Sold House

Thursday, 5 October 2023

75 Parkes Road, Collaroy Plateau, NSW 2097

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 4

Type: House

Jeff Johnson
0290737888

Josh Runco
0290737888

Contact agent

Resting on an elevated 930sqm parcel, this bespoke family home has been newly transformed into a luxurious designer home that blends coastal cool with a splash of Palm Springs to create a dreamy oasis. The imaginative redesign unfolds over a highly functional layout, with multiple living spaces and four sanctuary-like bedrooms, while carefully selected fixtures and finishes set a mood of timeless luxury. Beautiful yet practical, 5m high ceilings, reclaimed gables and gold accents add a sense of glamour and drama to the interiors, timber floors add warmth, while vast use of glass embrace the outdoor and flood the interiors light. A high-spec custom kitchen and streamlined living space serves as the social heart of the home with the poolside entertainer's haven beyond, while the sunny rear child-friendly garden is complete with a custom firepit space. Its popular location is close to schools, village shops, CBD buses, Narrabeen Lake and the beach.- Spotted gum custom pivot door and timber floors add warmth and texture- Sweeping living dining area set under soaring ceilings with exposed timber beams- Statement kitchen with pink Italian marble surfaces and recessed lighting- Ilve oven, in-built coffee machine, wine fridge and butlers pantry- Entertainer's haven with a fully tiled heated pool as its striking centrepiece - Casual family room is perfect to relax, play, study and quiet retreat- Four double bedrooms fitted with built-ins, main with ensuite- Designer bathrooms with Terrazzo tiles and brass fixtures, functional laundry- Auto two car garage, plus additional driveway parking, vast attic storage