Nestled in the tranquillity of 754 Heath Road, Cashmore, this picturesque property spans over 14 acres, offering an idyllic haven for those yearning for serenity and a connection with nature. The immaculately maintained cottage, a true embodiment of country charm, boasts a practical layout comprising a kitchen dining area, formal lounge, 2 bedrooms, sunroom, and 2 bathrooms. Polished hardwood floors add a touch of timeless elegance, while the inclusion of combustion heating and reverse cycle heating and cooling ensures year-round comfort. The property's exterior, features established trees that create a harmonious landscape and an expansive picturesque dam spanning approximately 1 acre, serves as a magnet for diverse bird life. There is also ample shedding including an 7.6m x 8m powered workshop, an additional 7.3m x 6m storage shed, and undercover carports catering to both caravan and car storage needs and a dedicated craft room equipped with power complements the versatile outdoor spaces. Furthermore, the property's water needs are well met with a bore and rainwater supply. For those seeking a lifestyle immersed in nature's beauty, 754 Heath Road is an enchanting retreat offering both comfort and functionality in a rural setting.
