Recently renovated to the highest quality, this much-loved home offers style, space and incredible views to the Glasshouse Mountains, the Sunshine Coast and Brisbane. Elevated just perfectly, this home will delight its new owners with space to entertain, room to relax or just revel in everyday life. Renovations to the house now include gorgeous Sydney Blue Gum polished floors throughout, a true cook's kitchen, wood burning fireplace, multiple entertaining spaces that capture those views, a main bedroom en suite and a spa-like family bathroom with freestanding tub and walk-in shower. Buyers seeking a weekend retreat from the city hustle and bustle, buyers considering creating short-term accommodation or buyers looking to create their dream Hinterland life will find a home here. Practical and coveted elements combine beautifully to create a highly desirable space; a large island kitchen bench, fantastic storage, 2 living spaces and access via large sliding doors to the outdoor patio and magical views in every direction. The main bedroom space offers Glasshouse views, a gorgeous en suite with skylight and a walk-in robe. Architecturally designed features can be seen in so many elements throughout the home and make this property a truly special one.
