Nestled in a spectacular leafy enclave on a sprawling 1059sqm block (approx.), this pristine renovated retreat is the epitome of carefree convenience, placing its family within a stroll of highly regarded schools, transport connections and charming village stores. Instantly captivating, the home's crisp white facade is framed by the verdant tones of its flourishing frontage, opening via chic double doors to reveal airy high ceilings, elegant floating floors and a soothing colour palette. Awash with natural light and savouring treetop outlooks, the flowing layout introduces a formal living space with a contemporary fireplace for cosy winter evenings, spilling to the versatile family/meal zone with its exquisite bay window. Picture a tranquil morning coffee on the connecting entertainers' balcony, gazing out to the huge backyard as the birds sing cheerily in the canopy of towering fern trees. Perfect! Placed centrally to further encourage socialising, the spacious stone kitchen is ideal for the aspiring chef's creations with its 900mm dual fuel oven, dishwasher, flexi-hose tap and plentiful storage. Completing the calming interiors, the four comfortable bedrooms share the sparkling family bathroom with its floor-to-ceiling tiles and walk-in shower, plus there's a handy shower and w/c to bedroom two. The primary bedroom is the whisper-quiet sanctuary busy parents crave with its generous proportions, privacy zoning, ample storage and deluxe ensuite. Chandelier lighting adds to the home's sophisticated appeal while additional finishing touches include under house storage and entertaining space, a single carport and abundant off-street parking to the expansive frontage. Life in this coveted neighbourhood is all about convenience with popular amenities practically on the doorstep, such as Upwey Primary School Upwey High School, sporting facilities and the suburb's bustling shopping strip. Nearby Upwey Station and the Burwood Highway ensure seamless city commuting, while there's easy access to glorious walking trails, elite private schools and Angliss Hospital. With nothing left to do but unpack and unwind in beautiful natural surroundings, this idyllic family home has it all. Property Specifications: Open plan living/dining, four bedrooms, two ensuites, family bathroom Stone kitchen, sunlit entertainers' deck, sprawling natural backyard 3x built-in robes, LED downlights, under house storage/laundry
