Cleverly designed with easy living in mind, this home is designed around practicality and functionality. Centrally located kitchen with large walk-in pantry and island bench overlook a generously sized living room and meals area, then flow to a large undercover outdoor space perfect for entertaining over a barbecue on weekends. This design has great storage throughout including built-in robes featured in three bedrooms, and a large walk-in robe for the master. Practically located near the bedrooms, the main bathroom and laundry are also out of sight from the entertaining area meaning you are always ready for guests. This design also comes with an oversize family room for the movie buffs out there! Location: On the mid-North coast of New South Wales lies one of the state's best kept secrets: the awe-inspiring waterways of Harrington Waters, and the resort-style homes that line its glittering shores. Offering buyers a piece of paradise in a community-centric, peaceful estate, Harrington Waters has it all: stunning waterways, pristine natural beauty, Crowdy Head Beach, a 3.5km Riverwalk and cycling path, a 9-hole golf course (ranked in the top 25 nationally!), a community centre, church, shopping village, and even a bustling Irish pub. Experience a new way of living. Find the perfect family home and embrace a new waterside lifestyle on the stunning shores of Harrington Waters.
