Introducing 76 Nepean Street, Watsonia – a residence that defies the ordinary and beckons those who revel in the allure of individuality. This exceptional home, with its three bedrooms each boasting its own distinctive character, boldly rejects conformity, inviting you into a world of unique charm. Immerse yourself in the warmth of the wood fireplace centrally located in the living dining area, creating a cozy ambiance that complements the unique character of the home. The kitchen, positioned in the heart of the home, seamlessly intertwines with the living room, fostering a sense of connection and shared experiences. Continue through to the second living zone, providing an additional space for relaxation and entertainment with an adjacent study, offering a quiet and inspiring space for work or creativity. The main bathroom, recently renovated, adds a touch of contemporary elegance. From creatively eclectic floors to charmingly mismatched fixtures, every detail reflects the bold audacity of its design, making it more than just a residence but a true expression of artistic freedom. Venture into the backyard, a blank canvas awaiting your green thumb and an opportunity to create a personalised outdoor experience. With convenient garden sheds, providing practical storage for your tools and outdoor essentials. Conveniently located within a leisurely stroll to shops and the train station. An unmissable opportunity awaits those who dare to be different – seize the chance to embrace the unconventional and secure this uniquely expressive abode!
