This fantastic home offers a seamless flow of living areas, a spacious front lounge equipped with a split system for year-round comfort. The beautifully restored kitchen effortlessly combines with a roomy meals area, creating an inviting and open space for family gatherings and entertainment. Discover three bedrooms, each with ample storage space provided by built-in robes, ensuring a comfortable and organized living experience. The central bathroom offers convenience and privacy for all residents, making daily routines a breeze. Step outside onto the rear deck, where breathtaking mountain views await. The deck also overlooks the expansive yard, featuring a dedicated vegetable patch and a versatile workshop shed. The property is solar-ready, promoting eco-friendly living and cost savings, while rear yard gates provide easy access to the outdoors. Complete with a double carport for sheltering your vehicles and additional storage space, this home is conveniently located near Baringa School, local shopping, and offers straightforward access to the M1.
