Stunningly positioned right above the waters edge this classic mid century solid brick home is ready to provide its new custodians a spectacular lifestyle opportunity. Hatched in the early eighties the home is comfortable as is and could be easily renovated to create a spectacular contemporary waterfront masterpiece. A serviceable kitchen with adjoining dining room and separate sitting room all enjoy cliff top views over the river and private beach at the bottom of an exclusive shared stairway leading to the waterfront. The master bedroom enjoys similar vista's and is serviced by an ensuite and built in robes. The central upper level master bathroom features separate bathing room and shower room with a self contained toilet. A single lock up garage and carport along with plentiful open space provide ample off-street parking. Commodious under house storage makes provision for development into a myriad of lifestyle options. Entrenched on over 1,280 sqm of gently sloping land and surrounded by established gardens in tightly held waterside Sandy Bay this home provides the perfect option for those seeking privacy, dazzling views and the sounds of water lapping on the foreshore.
