Nostalgic Queensland architecture mixes in perfect harmony with this home providing an enviable setting for the entire family to entertain and be proud to come home to every day. Wonderfully accommodating in its practicality of the 3 sheds, the fun of living on acreage is further enhanced with the well sized chook pen in the backyard and every inch of this flat block is utilised to the fullest extent with the entire property also enjoying a gentle slope towards the rear, aiding in fantastic drainage whilst also featuring very little in the way of retaining walls. Glorious morning eastern sun fills up the entirety of the backyard entertainment and pool area, providing a welcome environment setting that is hard to resist, with the western sunsets forming amongst a traditional backdrop of gum trees, perfectly enjoyed by sitting on the front deck surrounded by beautiful natives and camellias in full bloom. The crown jewel inside is undoubtedly the spacious and accommodating master suite, complete with a generous dual access walk in robe. The commanding open plan ensuite features every option you'd expect to live with such as multiple wall niches, twin sinks and waterfall shower heads.
