Set back off on the high side of the street, on a 1085m² block. These beautiful established gardens make for a tranquil sanctuary. Stepping up onto the one of two grand entrances, this perfect sunny spot is the perfect place to enjoy the picturesque views over the gardens. Stepping inside, you instantly feel the grandeur & attention to detail with original features of this circa 1960's home. Soaring high ceilings, parquet timber floors and french sliding doors opening into the living and dining rooms with gas fire places, help you appreciate the history & character of this beautiful home. The Kitchen is simply stunning and has been updated to fit the character of the home seamlessly. Featuring stone bench tops, double sink, complete with Miele dishwasher, electric oven and stovetop, fit for the chef of the family. There is a skylight, allowing natural light all year round and a R/C split system. A spacious sunroom off the kitchen overlooks the easy care backyard and pool which is secure for kids and pets. There are three well proportioned bedrooms all equipped with fans and a fourth bedroom or study. The main with built-in wardrobe and ensuite with door opening up onto back area. The sizeable family bathroom features, bath, shower, toilet, large vanity and skylight. This beautiful home offers an effortless family lifestyle being only minutes from Gunnedah's CBD, Hospital, Town Pool, Schools, Butcher and adjacent the Mornington Tennis Courts and Park. Please check out the virtual tour and contact Lauren or Olivia today to arrange your private inspection.
