Rarely do you get to enjoy such high-end finish with cutting edge design, coupled with breath taking views. As you climb the stairway to reveal a clever multi-level design, stunning spotted gum flooring, square set plaster work and huge expanses of glass. There are three distinct levels where you will discover four comfortable bedrooms, with luxury ensuite and walk in robe to the master. The huge central room is all open plan that incorporates living / dining and kitchen that is fully integrated with top of the range Meile appliances, including the fridge freezer. The top level is versatile as another living room, retreat, or an ideal work from home office, the choice is yours. Stepping outdoors to a well paved BBQ / entertaining area that captures that same distant view with all the Autumn colours. Of course, all the creature comforts are there with split system heating and cooling, ducted gas heating and the feature open fireplace. Complete with ample under house and attic storage and the remote control double garage. This could be your chance to call 77 Kaola Street Belgrave home.
