Perfectly placed to enjoy a stroll to central Mooroolbark, Esther Park and Barneong reserve, this street frontage two bedroom home is on its own title and offers spacious living over a single level. A downsizer retreat or savvy starter, this inviting home is privately tucked away behind a fence and lush front garden. Expansive and free flowing, the layout delivers space for relaxation and dining enhanced by covered deck accessed via a sliding door. The yard is an easy care size with space to potter if you please. Generous storage and bench space highlight the neatly appointed kitchen adjacent to the dining area. Peacefully zoned, two bedrooms are tucked away off a hallway and served by fresh bathroom, separate toilet and full laundry. Further comforts comprise split system in the living room, superb storage including built in robes, two linen cupboards and corner pantry with light along with single lock up garage. Just a few minutes' walk from Mooroolbark station, with shopping, cafes and other amenities including schools and childcare close by.
