This lovely two bedroom house has been recently renovated throughout while keeping to the original built touches of the home. This property has what everyone is after, it boasts original polished timber floorboards throughout, air conditioning, two bedrooms with built-in wardrobes with the main bedroom having its own private veranda. A separate bathroom and laundry that both have a toilet each, ceiling fans and three separate living areas. Starting with the lounge room it features the original fire place which is still in working order, separate dining area and another sunroom/living area which can be turned into a home office. This living area then takes you out to the under cover pergola area which is perfect for entertaining and a good sized fully fenced back yard with a garden shed. There is two off-street parking spaces and is only a short walk to local shops, train station and bus stops. Don't miss out on this one of a kind home!
